

Re: Professional Development
Elie Rastegar

January, 2015

Over the nine years of employment, at CPE Les P'tits Profs, Elie Rastegar has always taken a vested interest in improving her skills and attending both local and international conferences. As an added benefit to the center, she has always returned to the CPE and shared her knowledge with her colleagues through presentations to the other educators.

Some of the workshops she has attended have included:

International:

2008-NAEYC International Conference Dallas, Texas
2009-NAEYC International Conference Washington, DC
2014-NAEYC NAEYC International Conference Dallas, Texas

Local/In house workshops:

2007-Laughter workshop; Lilliana Deleo
2007-Team building-Mont St. Sauveur
2007-QAPPD Annual Educator's workshop
2008-Intervention Strategies for Challenging Behaviors-Grace Edeh/Anna Bruno
2008- QAPPD Annual Educator's workshop
2009-Emergent Curriculum workshop-Linda Lemesurier
2009- "Place Making:Creating places where amazing experiences can happen- Martin Liberio
2010-Ergonomics and How to Prevent Injuries at work: Readaptation Universelle
2010-Board Orientation Workshop: Madelina Couthino/Luisa Iglio
2010-Communication-Judith Grad
2010-2012-Served as a Board Member for CPE Les P'tits Profs
2011-2014-Creating and Supporting a Culture of Excellence- a series of workshops on Team Development, Communication, Taking Ownership, Strength Deployment Inventory (SDI), Team Success, Effective and Inclusive Relationships, Personal Strengths and Understanding Behavior.

2012-Culture Committee: Served as a member of a Committee to strengthen and uphold our Commitment to creating a more positive environment in the workplace.

2013-April-AECEQ Educator's Workshop

2013-October-WEVAS: Working Effectively with Violent and Aggressive Students

2014-April: Gazelle et Poitiron: Healthy Lifestyles for Movement and Nutrition in Childcare Centers

I know her years of experience and Professional Development have only helped to improve her excellent skills. I am confident that she would be an asset to any educational program or child care setting.

Sincerely,

Lisa Comerford

Lisa Comerford
Executive Director
CPE Les P'tits Profs